

Abel Lecture at ICM in Rio 2018

“The Future of Mathematical Physics: new ideas in old bottles”

by Sir Michael Atiyah, 2004 Abel Prize Laureate

Before the lecture there will be a brief presentation of the Abel Prize by Kristian Ranestad
Introduction by Jacob Palis

Monday, August 6 | 18:00–19:00 | Pavilion 3, Room: Plenary

Sir Michael Francis Atiyah and Isadore M. Singer received the Abel Prize “for their discovery and proof of the index theorem, bringing together topology, geometry and analysis, and their outstanding role in building new bridges between mathematics and theoretical physics.”

The Abel Lecture is open to everybody. No registration necessary.
